According to data retrieved from the National Poison Data System (NPDS), there were 6,223 Hand Sanitizer exposure cases reported to the 55 U.S. Poison Control Centers (Jan. 1, 2022 through Mar. 20, 2022), which resulted in an increase of 25% compared to the same time before the COVID-19 pandemic (2019).