America's Poison Centers (formerly known as American Association of Poison Control Centers) represents the 55 U.S. Poison Centers. Poison Centers provide real-time poison exposure education, and prevention services via telephone, 24/7/365. Poison Centers employ doctors, nurses, and pharmacists who have specialized training in poisoning prevention and treatment.

U.S. Poison Centers
- Responded to 2,080,917 human exposures cases
- On average, receiving an exposure case every 15 seconds
- Served all 50 states, Washington D.C., U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and 3 Pacific Jurisdictions

Top 5 Exposure Substance Categories
- Analgesics: 11.2%
- Cleaning Substances (Household): 7.5%
- Cosmetics/Personal Care Products: 5.9%
- Antidepressants: 5.6%
- Sedative/Hypnotics/Antipsychotics: 4.7%

Data Trends
- 24,877 Cannabinoid Exposures
- 7,072 Fentanyl Exposures
- 18,106 Total Bupropion Exposures
- 1,863 Bupropion (Death & Major Outcome) Exposures

Distribution of Human Exposure Cases
- 41% of cases were for children ages <= 5
- 54% of cases were female
- 87% of all cases were single substance exposures

Reason, Location, Case Management
- 93% of cases occurred in a residence
- 67% of cases were managed on site where exposure occurred
- 14% of all exposures were suspected suicide

References: