

The Upstate New York Poison Center at Upstate Medical University in Syracuse, NY is hiring for

Public Health Educator

This is a full-time position.

Monday to Friday 8 a.m. to 4 p with occasional evening and weekend commitments.

Responsibilities include:

- Collaboration with members of the Public Education Team
 - Responding to intelligence around poisoning trends by
 - Developing poison prevention programs for the general public
 - Presenting poison prevention programs
 - Evaluating the effectiveness of these programs
 - Developing and evaluating collateral educational materials
 - Networking and developing community partnerships with (examples)
 - State and County Drug Taskforces
 - Cooperative Extensions
 - Safe Kids Committees
 - HeadStart Programs
 - Prevention Collations
 - Developing and implementing target educational activities during Poison Prevention Month.
 - Participation in grant funding initiatives.

Qualifications:

- Minimum
 - Bachelor's degree in health education or related field and
 - 1 to 2 years of teaching/training experience
 - Excellent public speaking experience
 - Excellent writing skills
 - Ability to travel.
 - Transportation needed.
- Preferred Qualifications
 - Master's degree in public health or public administration
 - Poison Center experience

For More Information Contact Michele Caliva, Administrative Director at 315.289.2201 or email at calivat@upstate.edu