Results: According to data retrieved from the National Poison Data System (NPDS), there were 33,229 Hand Sanitizer exposure cases reported to the 55 U.S. Poison Control Centers (Jan. 1, 2021 through Dec. 31, 2021), which resulted in an increase of 53% compared to the same time before the COVID-19 pandemic (2019).