Results: According to data retrieved from the National Poison Data System (NPDS), there were 30,583 Hand Sanitizer exposure cases reported to the 55 U.S. Poison Control Centers (Jan. 1, 2021 through Nov. 28, 2021), which resulted in an increase of 54% compared to the same time before the COVID-19 pandemic (2019).